

Travel Requests & Speaking Engagements

Travel Expenses

Blueprint for Life (BFL) will be responsible for booking all airfare for two people, Your BFL main speaker and a prayer partner that will be traveling with him. Once the tickets have been purchased, BFL will provide the church/organization with the flight itinerary and the cost. We graciously request that the host church/organization reimburse our ministry for the flight cost. We ask that the reimbursement be made promptly to BFL once the confirmed information has been received.

Lodging

We would appreciate it if the host church or organization would be responsible for the lodging of your BFL main speaker and his prayer partner. However, please note that BFL will cover all phone calls made from the hotel.

Meals

We also request that the host church or organization provide all meals for your BFL main speaker and his prayer partner while they are there.

Blueprint for Life respectfully asks that you provide at least 90 days' notice when requesting your BFL main speaker to speak.
